Prince George Electric Cooperative strives to plan, construct, and complete all construction projects without damage to its member's property. However; it is inherent in the construction process that conditions and unknown circumstances may result in some unintended damages. Property damage may also result from soil conditions, weather conditions and site conditions caused by others. It will be the property owner's responsibility to repair any damages that may occur during the construction or maintenance of electric facilities. The property owner releases from liability and holds harmless Prince George Electric Cooperative from any responsibility whatsoever, for property damage in the course of construction electric distribution facilities. This does not release Prince George Electric Cooperative from responsibility for acts of negligence.
